Published by the Seniors of

Kennedale High School

Dedication

The Kennedale Senior Class of 1958 dedicates this issue of the Kat to our English teacher, Mrs. C.M. Cartlidge. The Seniors and the student body are well aware of and appreciate her sincere interest in them, as she works with them in classroom and counseling situation. So it is with high esteem that we make this dedication.

BANDITS BEND UNDER LAW AND ORDER

When Police officers, Phillip Miller and Kenneth Tramell, raided the night club, Lucy's Lounge, they picked up four armed bandits. They were Joe Conlin, notorious candy snatcher from babies; James Townsend, dope (Hadacol) smuggler; Donald Randall, alias "Don, the Dip," a pickpocket; and "Nut Cracker Nellie" Janelle Cappers. They are now living it up in the county jail.

WAR NEWS

General Obbie Winsett led the 4th Division to a victory today. Sergeant Charles Randall, who after five years is still official potato peeler, discovered the enemy moving up along the eastern border. He discovered them while emptying potato peelings. Winsett and his men struck unexpectedly and captured the famous spy "Slippery Sam," Royce Brewer.

"HARRUMPH!"

Arlie Stanley, music critic for the Kennedale Gazette, has disagreed with Janie Robbins on the ability of Torch Singer, Susan Hughes, currently engaged at Burches Showland. Regardless of Miss Robbins opinion Mr. Stanley maintains Miss Hughes has plenty of ability. . . . In short, he reports her performance of last night as being "Harrumph!"

CHAMPION AT LAST

The new swimming champion, Ellen Allcorn, swam the English Channel on June 21, and report has been made that she plans to attempt to swim it again.

MEMBER RETURNS TO THE O. M. A.

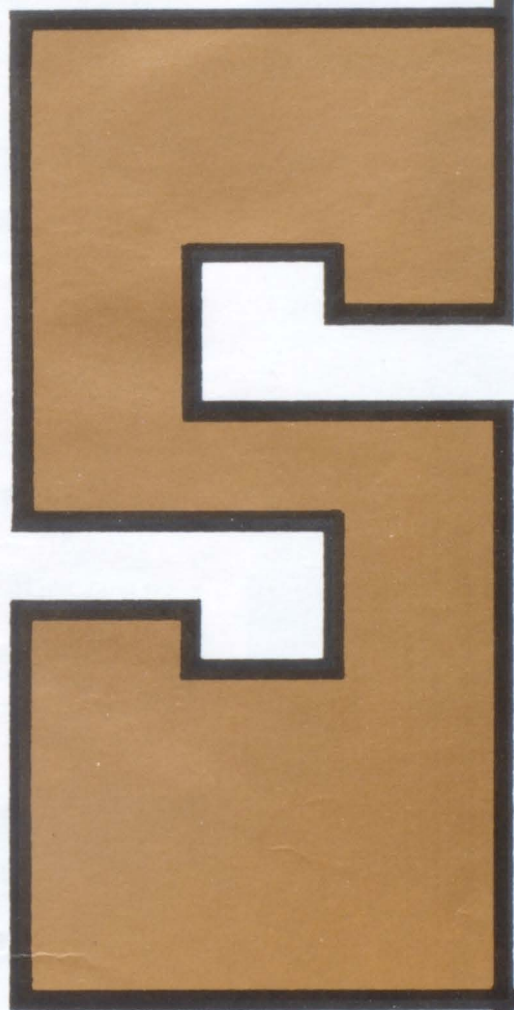

Pauline Fenoglio is again entering the "Old Maids Association" upon receiving qualification by becoming husbandless. She has been a member of this organization off and on, mostly off, for years. She is being sent to Alcatraz for choking her third husband to death on hot butter.

AWARD GIVEN

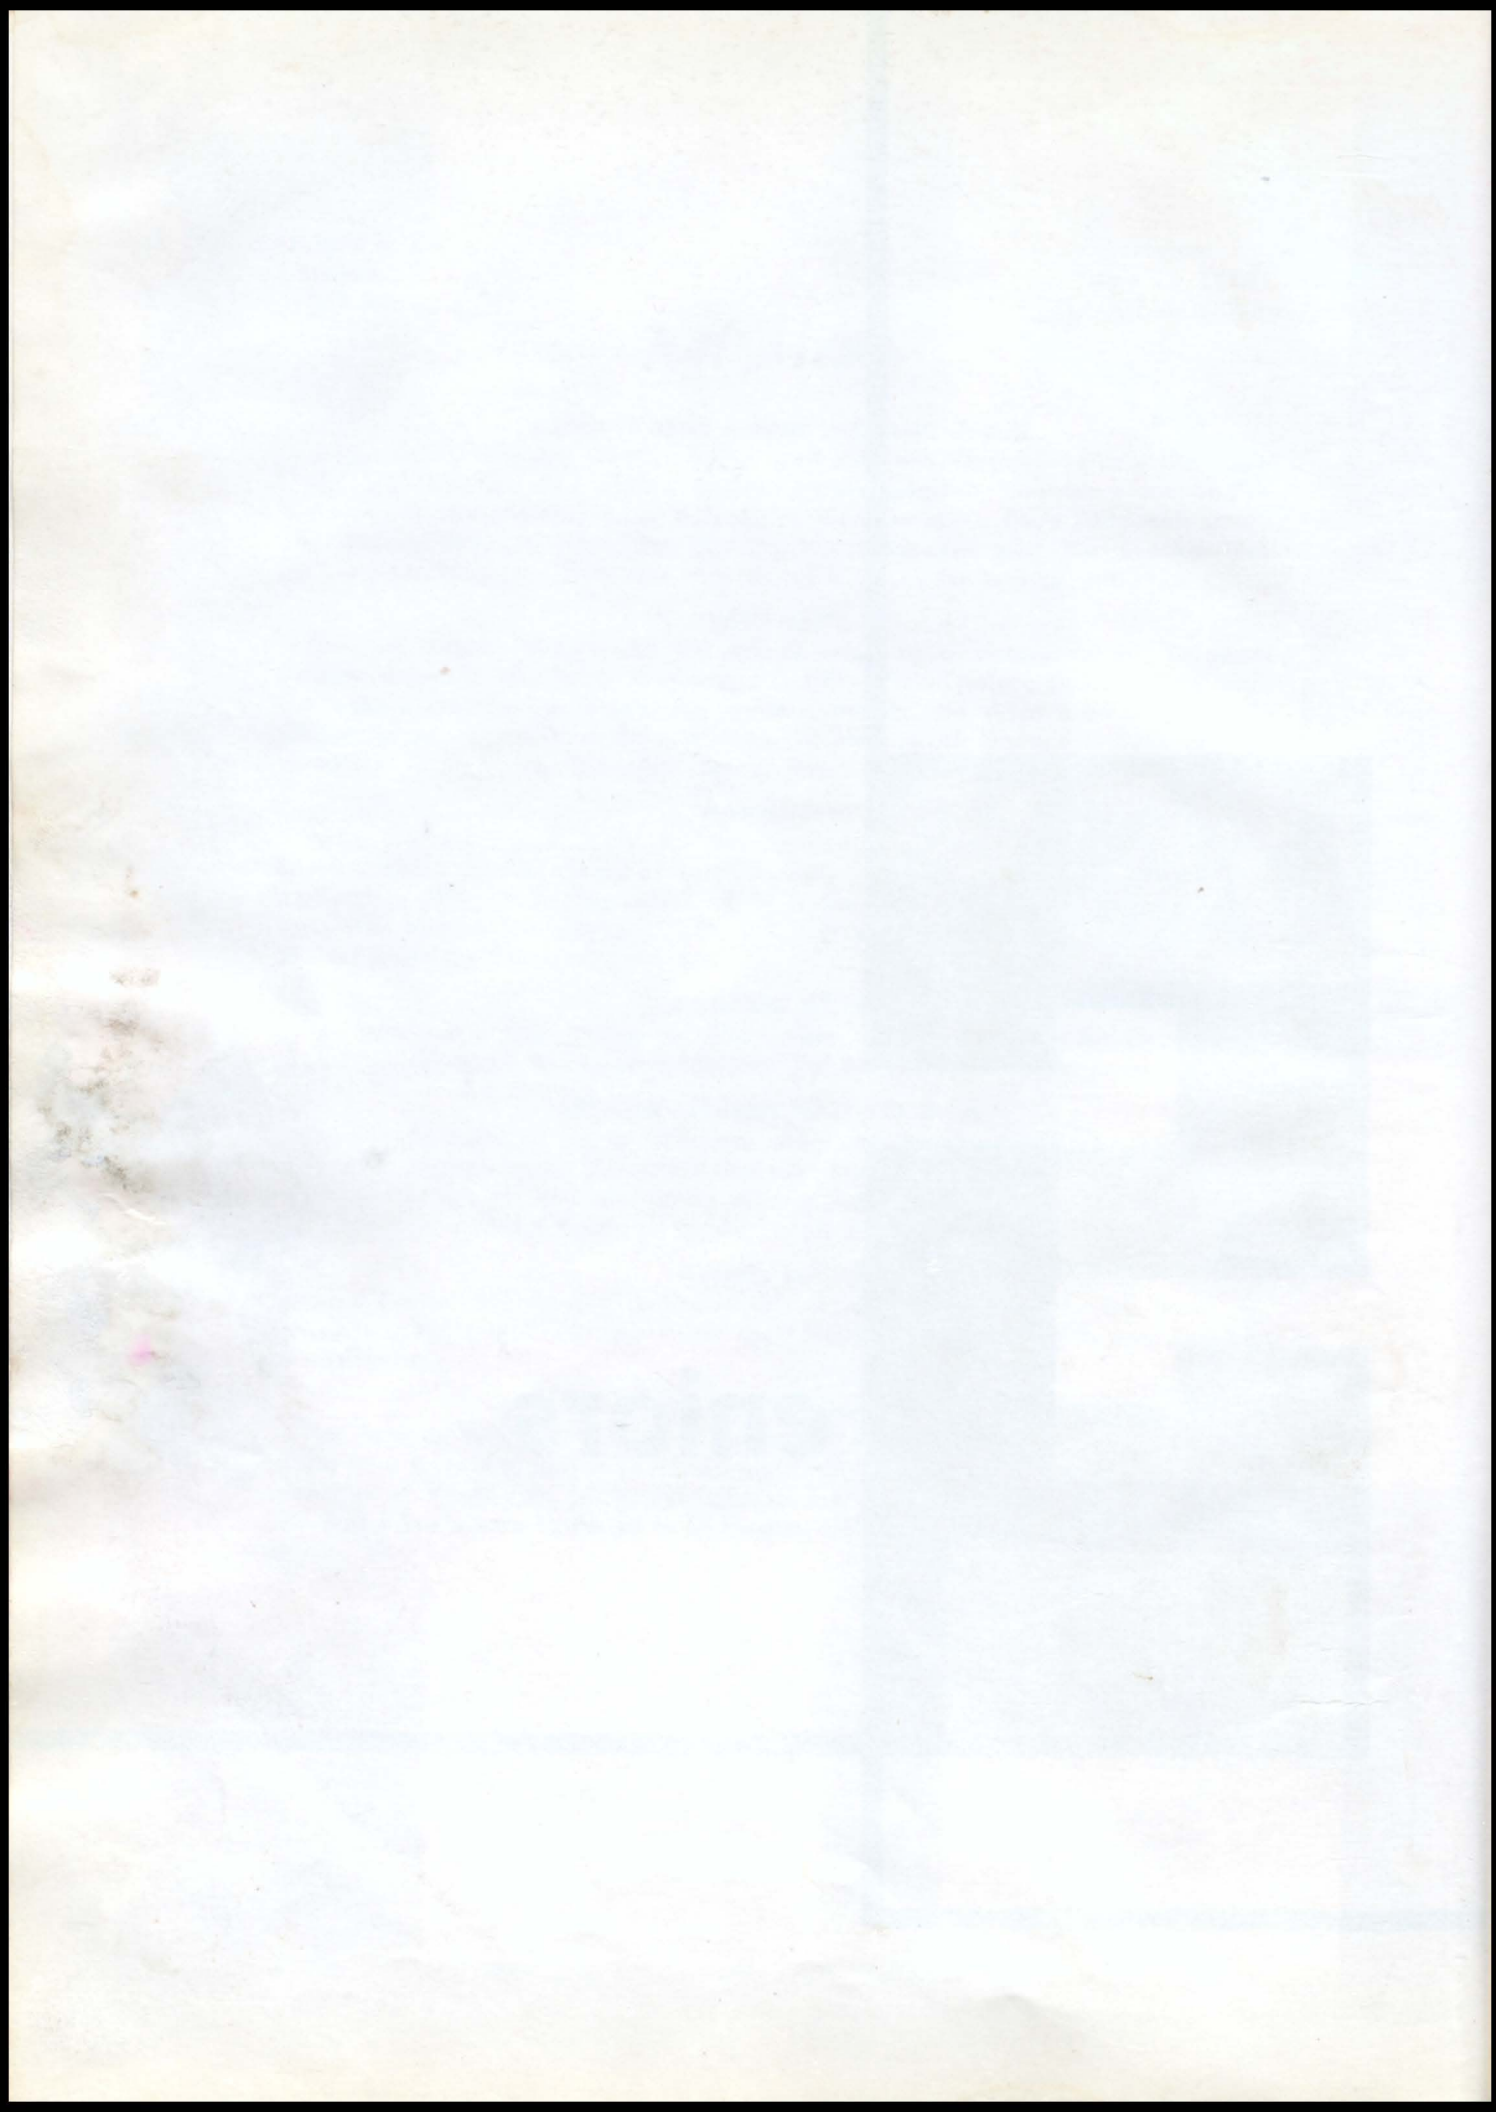

Gaye Preston received a medal at the community bazaar for the most efficient housewife of 1978. Last week she received a medal for the best speaker of the year.

EXCITEMENT IN SPORTS

The famous wrestler, Gorgeous Albright (Wilda) challenged Hot Rod Kline (Ruth) to a wrestling match Thursday night. They will be fighting for the championship of Kennedale High. Albright said she is confident she can win but Hot Rod Kline wants to prove to Gorgeous Albright what a wonderful wrestler she is.

Class Will

I, Wilda Albright, will my ability to keep a cool temper in basketball games to Jeanette Haney.

I, Ellen Allcorn, will my job working in the office for Mr. Scott to Janice Hardesty.

I, Royce Brewer, will my ability to try to Hot Rod to Butch Evans.

I, Dorothy Burch, will my ability (?) to play basketball to Charles Knotts.

I, Janelle Cappers, will my ability to skip P. E. to Susie Winsett.

I, Joe Conlin, will my ability to make touchdowns on "punt returns" to Wilbur Stanley. (I hope it works!)

I, Pauline Fenoglio, will my sense of humor to Leon Plunk.

I, Susan V. Hughes, will my long hair to Matheldia Pittman.

I, Ruth Kline, will my reckless driving to anyone with the nerve.

I, Philip Miller, being of insane mind and disease racked body, do will my Segram's Seven and Harley to Jackie Sudduth.

I, Gaye Preston, will my honor role as "Laziest" to Doris Corey and Ann Bird because they need a rest.

I, Donald Randall, will nothing to nobody!

I, Charles Randall, will my worn out football shoes and the chance to kiss the Homecoming Queen to Teddy Patterson.

I, Janie Robbins, will my blond hair to anyone who can find the bottle that it came from.

I, Arlie Stanley, will the rest of my life to Virginia Stanley.

I, James Townsend, will my perfect attendance to Donnie Gillstrap and Cecil Patterson.

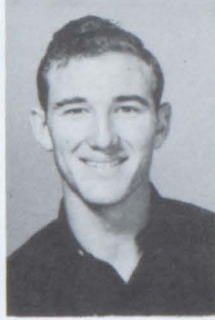

I, Kenneth Trammel, will my ability to drive 80 m.p.h. down Berry Street and Fort Worth to Kent Scott.

I, Obbie Winsett, will my ability to leave (I hope!) to Charles Goodner and Tommy Robins.

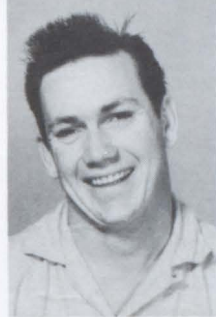

I, Lucy Wyatt, will my worn-out shorthand pad to Mr. Collins.
